

THIS WEEK'S MEETING

This week's meeting was the 75th annual Van Nuys Joint Service luncheon attended by members of the Mid Valley Chamber of Commerce, the Van Nuys Kiwanians, The Van Nuys Rotary Sunrise Club in addition to the host Van Nuys Rotary clubs and other visiting Rotarians and guests.

Organized jointly by Nancy Hoffman of the Mid Valley Chamber of Commerce, Joe DiFatta of Van Nuys Rotary, Janie Paxman, PDG Emilio Basile of the Rotary Sunrise Club (who also assisted as Master of Ceremonies) and Van Nuys Rotary President Archie Kidwell, the annual event attracted 115 people.

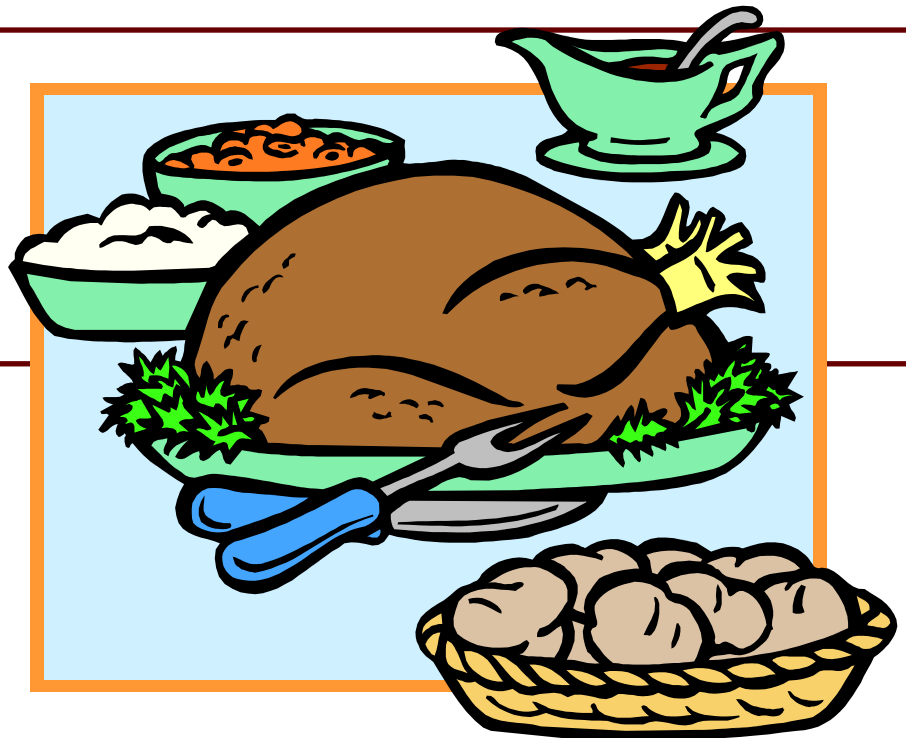

The Sea Cadets Naval Honor Guard presents the colors.

Our special guest speaker was the Reverend Larry Stamper with the First United Methodist Church of Burbank who was introduced by former member (and now Kiwanian) Steve Hall and music for the occasion was provided by Steve Donnelly. A special thanks to Kirk's Flowers for providing the floral arrangements.

Knowing that a picture is worth a thousand words, please enjoy the following photos from the event.

President Archie, PDG Joe DiFatta and PDG Emilio Basile were all happy to let Reverend Larry Stamper do the talking.

The Joint Service Club Luncheon has long been an opportunity for service organizations to share fellowship.

The incredibly funny Reverend Stamper was also very serious as he talked about the privilege of serving others.

Rotarian Cherie Spamer and Nancy Hoffman, CEO of the Mid Valley Chamber make sure that the guests are all checked in.

Rotarians Bill Selcer, Frank Micale and Barbara Baerg.

Our guests all made a point of introducing themselves to each other.

Judi Rose and District 5260 Governor Ken Banks have a conversation filled with holiday spirit.

Ron Feinstein, and unnamed guest and President Elect patiently wait in line for Turkey with all of the trimmings.

Rotarians Ken Worthen and Don Fetherolf congratulate birthday boy Irv Ryder and Pete Satuloff pays the bills.

Among our very special guests were Commander Michael Moore and Michael Moriarty of LAPD-Van Nuys Division.

Steve Hall made arrangements for the music and introduced our guest speaker. Now if we can only get him back in the club.

We are as pleased to have guests as they are to be here.

Don Stout and Larry Winnick reminisce with Jerry Allen who came all the way from Arkansas for the luncheon.

Mike Quiroga came and brought his entire staff!

Flip tells a guest: "If you think this lunch is good, just wait until you become a club member."

Jim Tenner, Don Stout and Don Fetherolf join guests in line for the banquet buffet.

Judy Rose and guest from the chamber enjoy lunch.

As PDG Basile and President Kidwell compare notes after lunch, someone was heard to have said; "A very Happy Thanksgiving to all and to all a warm thank you for coming."
