Meeting Highlights...

Service Anywhere In The World

This week we had the opportunity to hear about a form of service that reaches out to people anywhere in the world! Francine Vogler, M.D. is the medical director for Air Rescue, a company that provides 24 hour air ambulance response. Dr. Vogler has made it her mission to become the solution to insurance and health care providers concerns about the air ambulance industry.

With one call, the person in need will have access to highly qualified staff and a huge resource that covers all possibilities of air charter services. Reaching six of the seven continents AIRescue is the most experienced medical team in the international air evacuation industry. For more information email Dr. Vogler at airescue@msn.com
